Ad*Lib is a musical group consisting of 3 – 6 vocalists with either 2 – 3 musicians (keyboard, drums, saxophone), a full band or the utilization of pre-recorded music. We sing a variety of music; however, we specialize in inspirational music. Ad*Lib is based in Durham, North Carolina and Yolanda Rabun, the primary contact for the group, can be reached at the following numbers:

919 844-9555 – Residence
919 845 9500 – Work
919 426 7022 - Mobile

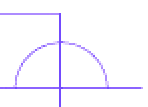

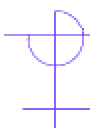

Due to the expenses involved in performing, a minimum performance consists of 4 vocalists with either backup musicians (if available) or pre-recorded music, singing 3-4 songs for a period of 20 minutes, traveling no more than 30 miles (60 miles roundtrip) for a minimum fee of $500. For performances other than as described at the minimum rate, based on your request (length of performance, travel distance, etc...), we will establish a rate for the performance prior to any agreement to perform.

Dress for our group is generally conservative, consisting of black dress pants and brightly colored shirts/blouses. In addition, Ad*Lib will require six (6) microphones and a sound system capable of playing a compact disk (CD). If our band is used we will need to discuss details.

Since performing is a ministry for our entire group in addition to a source of income, we are often asked to perform for churches or not for profit organizations for “an offering.” As previously stated, our minimum is $500 – Your organization can agree to cover the minimum (or our agreed upon fee for your event) or the difference between the total contribution of your attendees and the fee. If contributions exceed the minimum (or agreed upon fee), we will consider the additional contributions as a blessing to use to continue our ministry. Or you can cover the minimum (or our agreed upon fee for your event), take up the offering on your own to cover the expense of our performance and if your group contributes more than our fee, you can be blessed by their generosity.

Payment in full is expected on the day of our performance. In certain circumstances, particularly where travel beyond 30 miles from Durham, NC is required, we may ask for a portion of the payment up front.
